

Autism Friendly Summer Training
Join us in July for our two-day summer training event!

DAY ONE: Autism Friendly Training

This training teaches and promotes awareness of the social, sensory, and environmental barriers which affect people who have autism spectrum disorder. Attendees gain valuable insight and understanding about autism and how to work with, serve, and interact with individuals with autism. This training is designed for companies, organizations, schools, and helping professionals in a variety of workplaces. Possessing a thorough understating of the strengths and uniqueness of individuals with autism provides valuable information to employees, staff, and educators as they interact with those with autism.

DAY TWO: Train the Presenter Training

This training serves as a practical tool for those wishing to train others to be autism friendly. Attendees will learn how to present their own Autism Friendly trainings to their co-workers and communities. Autism friendly materials will be covered as well as training techniques and processes. This training also includes information on creating an autism friendly city. At the end of this training, attendees will receive a certificate identifying they have completed the training to be a presenter. NOTE: For this training, attendees must complete both days.

- 1) Register for day one (6 hrs) – gain valuable information about autism and become autism friendly. Day one registration is $100
- 2) Register for both days (12 hrs) – become autism friendly and an autism friendly presenter. Registration for both days is $200 and includes a special gift!

All training materials will be emailed to attendees at least two weeks prior to the training date. All attendees who attend day one are required to purchase and read the book Autism Friendly: Stars for Autism Training Manual by Dr. Linda Barboa and Jan Luck prior to the training date. All attendees who attend day two are required to purchase and read the book Autism Presenters Manual: Stars for Autism by Dr. Linda Barboa prior to the training date. All required books can be purchased at amazon.com.
